PERMANENT MISSION
TO THE UNITED NATIONS

New York
25 September 1979

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that a change of régime took place in the Central African Empire on 20 September 1979. Mr. David Dacko has dissolved the former institutions of the Empire and has solemnly proclaimed the Central African Republic, of which he is President.

However, the former cabinet remains in office and will be responsible for managing day-to-day affairs pending the definitive establishment of a new government.

I should be grateful if you would have this communication circulated as an official document of the United Nations.

Accept, Sir, the assurances of my highest consideration.

(Signed) Simon-Pierre KIBANDA
